asked by:

Students at the Arctic Centre, NL

In a questionnaire on the internet, we ask to fill in your emotion when looking at 15 photo's. Emotions are ranked from very negative to very positive in five categories.

We are specifically interested in differences between people from different countries and people from arctic origin. At present we have nearly 1000 respondents of which the majority from the Netherlands. We need more reactions from other countries. At the end of the test, you can see the results so far
